Bio – Denton Woods

Denton Woods began working for RMP LLP in January 2006, joined as an associate attorney in August 2007 and became partner in January 2012. He received his undergraduate degree in Business Administration from the University of Arkansas's Sam M. Walton School of Business, his law degree with honors from the University of Arkansas in Fayetteville, and his Master of Laws degree in taxation from the University of Florida in Gainesville.

Denton's practice is focused in the areas of estate planning, probate and trust administration, taxation law and planning, business law and tax-exempt organizations. He is admitted to practice in Arkansas, Oklahoma, Texas and before the United States Tax Court. In September of 2017, Governor Asa Hutchinson appointed Denton to the Arkansas State Board of Public Accountancy.

In 2018, Denton was elected as a Fellow by the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC). ACTEC is a professional organization of approximately 2,600 lawyers who have demonstrated the highest level of integrity, commitment to the profession, competence and experience as trust and estate counselors. Fellows are selected on the basis of experience, professional reputation and ability in the fields of trusts and estates and on the basis of having made substantial contributions to these fields through lecturing, writing, teaching and bar activities.
